

The Cape Town Holocaust Centre invites you to a lecture-recital by soprano Julia Bronkhorst (Netherlands), who will tell the hidden-child story of her late husband, Holocaust survivor Daniel Vermeulen.

In this story, the main character looks back to his early childhood when he was hidden by a family in Brabant, Netherlands, during the war. He describes his experiences through the eyes of a sensitive and perceptive child, but simultaneously from the sharply critical viewpoint of an adult. The displacing nature of a history is profoundly explored through this narrative.

The story of a Jewish boy in Amsterdam after the Second World War
